

Client Information

As required by the State of Washington, the Client Information form is to advise the client of the practitioner's qualifications and authorized scope of practice.

Qualifications:

Education - Graduate of the Northwest School of Animal Massage with training in maintenance and rehabilitation massage

State of Washington Certification - #AS 60274663 Issued: 3-19-2012

Scope of Practice: As defined by WAC 246-940-010: "A certified animal massage practitioner is an individual who provides external manipulation or pressure of soft tissues by use of the hands, body, or device designed and limited to providing massage. Animal massage may include techniques such as stroking, percussions, compressions, friction, Swedish gymnastics or movements, gliding, kneading, range of motion or stretching, and fascial or connective tissue stretching, with or without the aid of superficial heat, cold, water, lubricants, or salts.

A certified animal massage practitioner may not diagnose, prognose, or treat diseases, deformities, defects, wounds, or injuries of animals; attempt to adjust or manipulate any articulations of the animal's body or spine or mobilization of these articulations by the use of a thrusting force; perform acupuncture involving needles; or perform mechanical therapies that are restricted to the field of veterinary medicine.

A certified animal massage practitioner may provide animal massage solely for purposes of the animal's well-being."
